

SALES AND USE TAX EXEMPTION REPORT

Estimates for FY 2023-24 to FY 2026-27

Released September 5, 2024

For the 2025-2026 Legislative Session

www.rfa.sc.gov

Introduction

This report provides an estimate of the amount by which state revenue is reduced due to sales tax exemptions. Amounts shown include an estimate for the portion of the tax that is collectable and the portion that would not be collectable even if the sales tax exemption is eliminated due to other considerations as noted. Estimates are based on the state 6 percent sales tax rate, with exceptions as noted. Local sales taxes are estimated in the aggregate based on an average local tax rate. The estimates for the current and upcoming fiscal years are subject to change as more data becomes available.

This report contains comprehensive updates to data and methodologies as appropriate. Estimates are not comparable to previous reports.

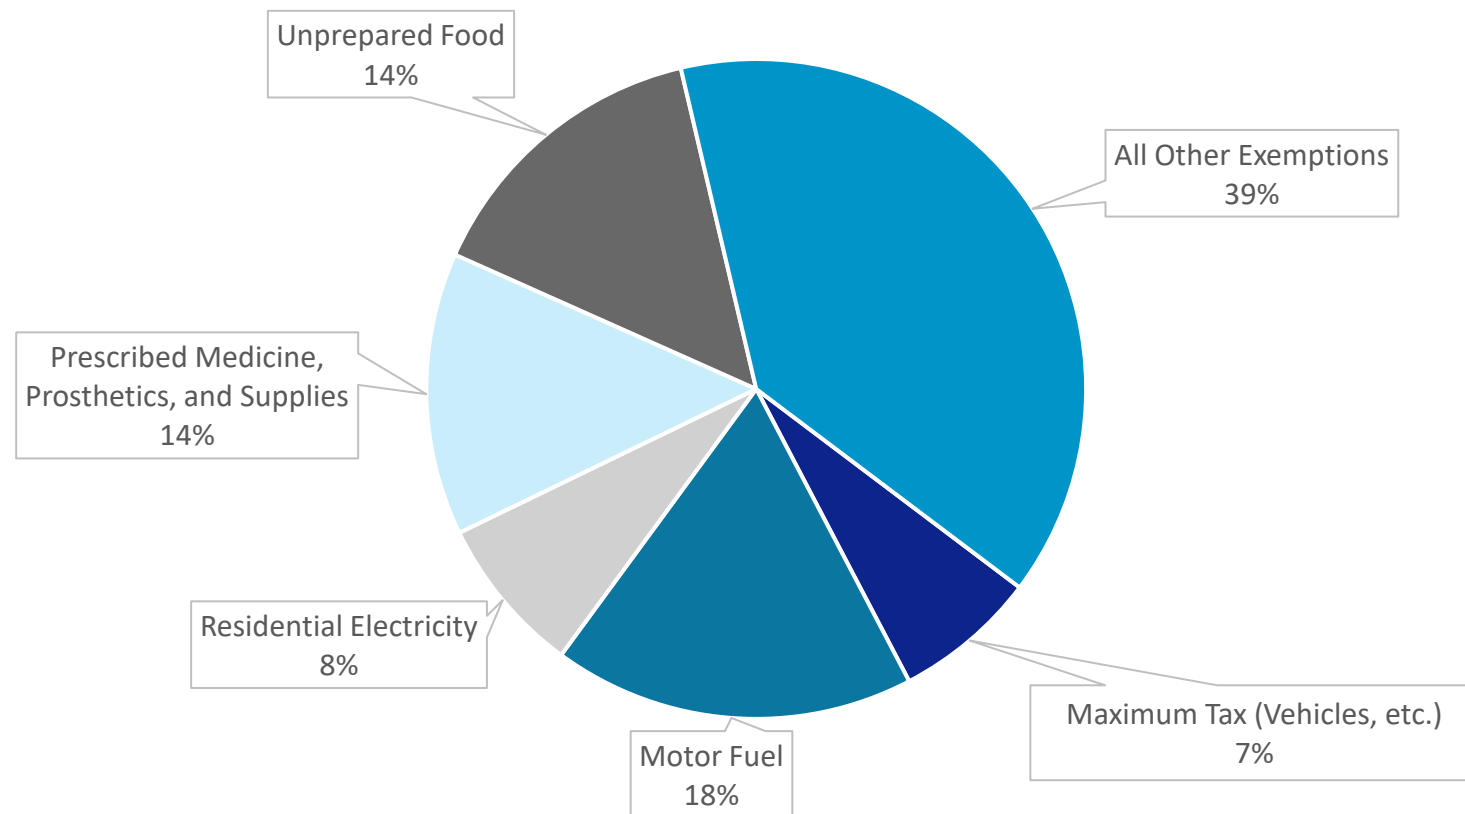

These estimates are based on current economic activity and tax law provisions at the time of publication. Please be aware that these estimates may not represent the future fiscal impact estimate for the removal of the exemption. Estimating the removal of an exemption will involve more analysis such as updated economic conditions, interaction with other tax provisions, and behavioral impacts. Consequently, RFA reserves the right to modify or change these calculations in performing its duty to provide fiscal estimates of proposed legislation under Section 2-7-71 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina.

Summary

Based on the estimated sales and use tax exemptions presented in this report, five exemptions make up approximately 61 percent of the FY 2023-24 total estimated state sales and use tax exemptions, and all other exemptions contribute approximately 39 percent. Of the five exemptions:

- Motor vehicles and other items subject to the maximum tax pursuant to Section 12-36-2110(A) account for 7 percent,
- Motor fuel pursuant to Section 12-36-2120(15) accounts for 18 percent,
- Residential electricity pursuant to Section 12-36-2120(33) accounts for 8 percent,
- Prescribed medicine, prosthetics, and supplies pursuant to Section 12-36-2120(28) account for 14 percent, and
- Unprepared food pursuant to Section 12-36-2120(75) accounts for 14 percent.

Estimates are based on state sales tax rate of 6 percent unless otherwise noted.

Disclaimer: These estimates are based on current economic activity and tax law provisions at the time of publication. Please be aware that these estimates may not represent the future fiscal impact estimate for the removal of the exemption. Estimating the removal of an exemption will involve more analysis such as updated economic conditions, interaction with other tax provisions, and behavioral impacts.

Consequently, RFA reserves the right to modify or change these calculations in performing its duty to provide fiscal estimates of proposed legislation under Section 2-7-71 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina.

Sales and Use Tax Exemption Estimates, FY 2023-24 - FY 2026-27

Notes:

N/A Estimate not available due to data or other issues. (See applicable notes below.)

- 1/ Act 40 of 2017 replaced the maximum sales and use tax on the sale or lease of specific items with an infrastructure maintenance fee (IMF). The maximum IMF affects those items required to be registered by the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV), pursuant to Section 56-3-627. The estimates provided under Section 12-36-2110 combine the total amount subject to the sales tax and the IMF. This analysis does not account for the current distribution of funds.
- 2/ This exemption has been ruled unconstitutional. The exemption for religious publications was declared unconstitutional by the S.C. Supreme Court in Thayer v. South Carolina Tax Commission, 413 S.E.2d 810 (1992) and Act 338 of 2008, which established an annual sales tax holiday for handguns and for certain energy efficient products, was declared unconstitutional by the S.C. Supreme Court in The American Petroleum Institution & BP Products North America, Inc. v. South Carolina Department of Revenue, et al. S.C. 677 S.E.2d 16 (2009).
- 3/ The Motion Picture Association of America (MPA) lends films to all movie theaters at no charge and collects 60 percent of the proceeds of ticket sales from each theater. As such, this exemption is $0 due to current business practices.
- 4/ Lottery tickets do not meet the definition of tangible personal property, as defined in Section 12-36-60, and thus sales tax is not collectable under Title 12.
- 5/ As this exemption deals primarily with the date of enactment, any items pertaining to it have already been included in exemption 12-2120-28(a).
- 6/ Source data is unavailable, but estimate anticipated to be less than $100,000.
- 7/ While there have been instances when electric transmission facilities have been sold to LLCs in South Carolina, the events do not occur with regularity, and an estimate
- 8/ This exemption amount is included in the exemption estimate for Section 12-36-2120(2), line 95.
- 9/ This exemption is classified as definitional, meaning it provides clarification and guidance to sales and use exemptions and may not constitute an "exemption."
- 10/ This analysis assumes that if the maximum sales and use tax was repealed, the change would apply to items subject to the Infrastructure Maintenance Fee as well. For simplicity, this analysis does not account for the current distribution of funds and assumes that of the full amount collected from the base, 4 percent sales tax would be credited to the General Fund and 1 percent to the Education Improvement Act fund.
- 11/ Purchases by individuals aged 85 and older under 12-36-2620, those items subject to the maximum sales and use cap under Section 12-36-2110, and unprepared food items as enumerated in Section 12-36-1110 are specifically exempt from the sales tax credited to the Homestead Exemption fund.
- 12/ Local sales tax estimate is based on an average rate of 1.57 percent. Figures do not include sales of items subject to the maximum tax or unprepared food sales. Certain local taxes already exempt unprepared food sales.
- 13/ Vacation time sharing plans are exempt from accommodations sales tax. The sales tax rate on accommodations is 7 percent, of which 4 percent is credited to the General Fund, 1 percent to the Education Improvement Act fund and 2 percent to the municipality or county in which it is collected. For the purposes of this report, the 2 percent allocated to municipalities or counties is not included in the estimated exemption amount for vacation time sharing plans.
- 14/ This exemption amount is included in the exemption for Section 12-36-2120(51), line 91.
- 15/ Due to methodological changes, estimates may not align with previously published reports.
- 16/ Sum of estimates may be different from reported totals due to rounding.
