The bill requires professional, surety bondsman, or runner license applicants to provide a business, email, mailing, and residential street addresses on the application and to notify the department within thirty days of any change in name or addresses. The bill requires email addresses to be provided on applications for an insurance producer's license, and adjuster's license, a public insurance adjuster's license, and for a motor vehicle physical damage appraiser's license. The bill deletes the affidavit requirements for a non-resident to be licensed as an insurance broker.
