Fiscal Impact Summary

This concurrent resolution will have no expenditure impact for the House of Representatives or the Senate because any responsibilities can be managed within the normal course of business for both bodies.

Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Introduced on January 12, 2021

State Expenditure

This concurrent resolution allows the General Assembly to apply to Congress for the calling of a convention of the states with the purpose of proposing amendments to the United States Constitution that imposes fiscal restraints on the federal government, limits the power and jurisdiction of the federal government, and sets term limits for federal officials and members of Congress. We anticipate that this concurrent resolution can be managed within the normal course of business for the Senate and the House of Representatives. Therefore, this concurrent resolution will have no expenditure impact.
