Fiscal Impact Summary

This bill as amended would have no expenditure impact on the General Fund, Federal Funds, or Other Funds as well as the local school districts.

Explanation of Fiscal Impact

Explanation of Amendment by the Senate on May 19, 2016

State Expenditure

The amendment adds a provision exempting school fundraisers from the requirements of Section 59-10-310, which requires school provided meals meet or exceed the nutritional requirements established by the United States Department of Agriculture Food and Nutrition Service. The amendment also deletes provisions from the bill as filed that applied Section 59-10-310 to summer school and required inclusion of a la carte items on the school menu.

There is no expenditure impact on the General Fund, Federal Funds, or Other Funds to the State Department of Education or the local school districts.
