BILL SUMMARY:

Senate Bill 864 amends Title 63, Chapter 11 of the Code of Laws, 1976, by adding language to enact the South Carolina Children's Advocacy Medical Response System Act, providing for program coordination, duties and responsibilities.

EXPLANATION OF IMPACT:

The University of South Carolina indicates that the Bill, if passed, would not result in any additional expenses. Currently, the institution expends $766,590 in General Funds ($541,590 in recurring and $225,000 non-recurring) to support medical staff providing direct care and cover program costs incurred by the twelve Statewide sites. Of the $766,590 in current expenditures, approximately $121,888 is used as a match to acquire $226,131 in additional Federal funding.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT IMPACT:

None.
